

If Jesus Came To Your House

If Jesus came to your house to spend a day or two,
If He came unexpectedly, I wonder what you would do?
Oh, I know you would give your nicest room to such an honored guest,
And all the food you would serve to Him would be the very best,
And you would keep assuring Him you were glad to have Him there.
That serving Him in your own home is joy beyond compare.

But when you saw Him coming, would you meet Him at the door,
With arms outstretched in welcome to your heavenly visitor?
Or would you have to change your clothes before you let Him in,
Or hide some magazines and put the Bible where they had been?
Would you turn off the television and hope He had not heard,
And wish you had not uttered that last, loud hasty word?

Would you hide your worldly music and put some hymn books out?
Could you let Jesus walk right in, or would you rush about?
And I wonder — if the Savior spent a day or two with you,
Would you go right on doing the things you always do?
Would you keep on saying the things you always say?
Would life for you continue as it does from day to day?

Would your family conversation keep up its usually pace,
And would you find it hard each meal to say a table grace?
Would you sing the songs you always sing and read the books you read,
And let Him know the things on which your mind and spirit feed?
Would you take Jesus with you every where you plan to go,
Or would you maybe change your plans for just a day or so?

Would you be glad to have Him meet your very closest friends,
Or would you hope they would stay away, until His visit ends?
Would you be glad to have Him stay forever on and on?
Or would you sigh with great relief when He at last was gone?
It might be interesting to know the things that you would do,
If Jesus Christ in person came to spend some time with you.
