

The Godhead

One of the most confusing aspect about God is the Godhead. This is the doctrine of God being comprised of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. The Godhead is specifically mentioned in the New Testament (Acts 17:29; Romans 1:20; Colossians 2:9). It is furthermore implied in God's language (Genesis 1:26; 3:22; Isaiah 6:8). Jesus taught that there were three Beings in the Godhead when He stated, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost ..." (Matthew 28:19).

From the following scriptures, one can see the distinct relationship of the Godhead:

- The Father is God (John 20:17). He is distinct from the Son (John 8:16) and the Holy Spirit (John 14:26).
- The Son is God (Hebrews 1:8). He is distinct from the Father (John 8:16) and the Holy Spirit (Acts 10:38).
- The Holy Spirit is God (Acts 5:3-4). He is distinct from the Father (John 14:26) and the Son (Acts 10:38).

So we see that God is comprised of not only the Father, but also a divine Son and Holy Spirit. The doctrine that denies that there are three distinct Beings which comprise God is false according to the Bible. Let's make sure that we always uphold the proper teaching of God's word.
