

The Kingdom Of God

The prophet Daniel made a prediction in Daniel 2:44 based off of Nebuchadnezzar's dream. He said, "And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed ..." In the New Testament, the Hebrew writer said, "Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear" (Hebrews 12:28).

When we are saved through baptism, we are "delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins" (Colossians 1:13-14). Denominationalists devalue the church by saying it was not a part of God's eternal plan, but the kingdom, which is the Lord's church, was bought by the precious blood of Jesus and was foreordained from before the foundation of the world (Acts 20:28; Ephesians 3:11).

Kyle Campbell