

Try These Excuses

The following list of excuses is presented for your use the next time you miss work and need a good reason. These are some of the excuses that brethren have used thousands of times in the past. Obviously, if the Lord will accept them, they should satisfy your boss.

- I'm sorry I was not at work yesterday, but friends came by unexpectedly.
- I'm sorry I was not at work yesterday, but we went to visit family and didn't make it back in time.
- I'm sorry I was not at work yesterday, but I was with you in spirit.
- I'm sorry I was not at work yesterday, but I decided to make my traveling plans when I was supposed to be at work and just could not make it.
- I'm sorry I was not at work yesterday, but I don't get out in the rain.
- I'm sorry I was not at work yesterday, but I thought I would go work someplace else for a day for a change.

These excuses will not work with either your boss or with God, will they? We all do what is important to us. If we are willing to offer feeble excuses to God as to why we cannot attend, perhaps we need to investigate our hearts to see if we really are "worthy of the kingdom of God" (2 Thessalonians 1:5).
