

Who Are They Kidding?

When a person claims he cannot stay awake through a 40 minute sermon but he stays home to watch his two hour news program, who is he kidding? When a man says Sunday is his only day of rest but he gets up at 4:30 a.m. to go fishing or spends the day on the golf course, who is he kidding? When a person says that church pews are too hard but he sits on a bleacher for hours and watches football players push one another back and forth across a field, who is he kidding? When a person says he cannot afford to give to the Lord but he lives in a comfortable home, drives a new car, and eats well, who is he kidding? When a man says he does not have time for Christ and attending services but he spends his time shopping, bowling, watching television and going to clubs, who is he kidding? They are certainly not kidding God.

Kyle Campbell