

The Perfections Of God

Introduction. Matthew 5:48 says, “Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.” Perfect is having all the required or desirable elements, qualities, or characteristics; as free as possible from all flaws or defects.

Hebrews 11:6 says, “But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.” So we can know that God exists, but why should we serve Him? Revelation 4:11 says, “Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.” Know that He exists, but also know the specific reasons why you should give your life to Him. “Take my life, and let it be ...”
