

What Christ Could Not Do

Introduction. We have wonderful blessings in Christ (Ephesians 1:3, 7). Because Christ did the Father's will (John 5:30) and because of our freewill (Joshua 24:15), as odd as it sounds, Christ could not do everything.

Conclusion. Christ cannot save anyone who does not obey Him (Hebrews 5:8-9; cf. Jeremiah 7:21-23). To do so would violate the concepts of freewill and justice. We teach all men and perfect them in Christ (Colossians 1:28).
