

Women We Do Need

Introduction. It was hard for Solomon to find a good woman (Ecclesiastes 7:28), The emphasis is not on what Solomon found, but on what he found lacking. In either sex wisdom is rare; he finds men only slightly better than women. But by evaluating good examples and learning how to behave like them, women can be wise and upright.

I. Eunice

- A. 2 Timothy 1:5; 3:15.
- B. Women who teach their children the truth (Psalm 111:10; 2 Corinthians 10:5).

II. The Sick Woman

- A. Luke 8:43-48.
- B. Women who have great faith (John 6:28-29; Ephesians 6:16; 1 John 5:4-5).

III. Mary

- A. Luke 10:38-42.
- B. Women who place the word above secular pursuits (Isaiah 50:4-5; Hebrews 2:1).

IV. Priscilla

- A. Acts 18:24-26.
- B. Women who teach the gospel (Matthew 13:52; Colossians 2:7; Hebrews 6:1).

V. Vashti

- A. Esther 1:10-12.
- B. Women who manifest modesty (1 Timothy 2:9-10; 1 Peter 3:3-4).

Conclusion. If godly women will elevate Christ in their home, their homes will be better and their lives brighter. Godly women were very important in the work of the Lord, and their importance continues today.
